

September 2024, Prayer Letter

The whole earth is filled with awe at your wonder;
Where morning dawns, where evening fades,
You call forth songs of joy.
You care for the land and water it;
You enrich it abundantly.
You drench its furrows and level its ridges;
You soften it with showers and bless its crops.
You crown the year with your bounty,
And your carts overflow with abundance.

Psalm 65 v 8 -11

Lord of the Harvest, we thank you for the beauty of the earth and the plants that provide our food. We are grateful for the abundance of each year's harvest. Help us share generously, as you have shared with us.

We lift up those who are forgotten in our society
–the homeless, the hungry, the marginalized, and mistreated. Guide us to stand up for them and be a voice for the voiceless.

You hold the seeds of life, and you have blessed us abundantly. May we bear the fruits of love and generosity and share them with others.

Amen.
