

Shekinah Prayer Letter

January 2025

Sing to the Lord a new song; sing to the Lord, all the earth. Sing to the Lord, praise his name; proclaim his salvation day after day.

Psalm 96 v 1-4

As we step into a new year and season, we're reminded of God's grace, mercy, and faithfulness, carrying us safely forward with renewed hope and vision. Nature reflects this beautifully - while all seems still, quiet growth is happening beneath the surface.

Bare tree branches this time of year hold a lesson. At their tips, a sticky red or black coating protects the emerging buds, shielding them from harsh temperatures, insects, and water loss - a reminder of God's care and provision even in dormant times.

Thank you for giving us this world, for its ever-changing seasons and the cycle of life they bring.

As we journey into this new year thank you that you go with us.

Please open our eyes afresh to your glory in this world.

Amen
