

Shekinah Prayer Letter May 2025

“Trust in the Lord with all your heart
and do not lean on your own understanding.

In all your ways acknowledge him,
and he will make your paths straight.”

Proverbs 3:5-6

I constantly find myself drawn back to this verse as I deal with the difficulties and uncertainties of life. It serves as a gentle reminder that, even when things feel overwhelming or unclear, God is still in control.

It can be a real challenge to surrender our worries to the Lord, but when I do, I find myself living in a place of deep peace. That peace doesn't always come instantly, but it does come—alongside a sense of reassurance that I'm not alone and that God's wisdom far surpasses my own.

Thank you, Lord,
That you have promised to walk with us through life's challenges.
Thank you that you show us what to do when we face difficulties,
And thank you for your faithful promise to help us when we hand them over to you.

Thank you for your great wisdom,
And for exchanging our problems for your peace.
Thank you to each of you for standing with us in prayer and support. Your faithfulness encourages us to keep going—even when the path isn't clear—knowing that God is the one making it straight.
